

The Parachute Attaching Strap System, or PASS, is a set of adjustable webbing straps for attaching packs or harnesses to parachutes using quick-release attachents. They allow fast rigging and inspection, secure and predictable flying, and a controlled release for lowering.

